Hey Boss,
It's Coach Robbie.

Welcome to the Bio enhancement blueprint bonus. In here you will find 15 done-for-you Instagram bio templates that you can use starting today to enhance your first impression to women.

Now...
Very important

There are 5 pieces of information you MUST have in your bio in order to attract omen and increase your follow back ratio.

Imagine this is your first date. What are they going to learn about you that will make them want to follow your life and become attracted to you?

These 5 critical pieces of information are:

1. Your REAL Name
2. Your Location (where you live or where you will be moving to)
3. What you do vs. what you DO
4. More information about you
5. Web address

Let's start with #1.

#1. YOUR REAL NAME

---

Name:

This is not, your Instagram name. Instead this is about the name you put in your profile bio. You need to make sure your name is in your profile. I highly advise you to put your REAL name here. No woman wants to add back "King694ever". Put your real names here. The less information you give, the more you seem suspicious. Imagine if a girl wouldn't tell you her last name.

You would think it's a little weird wouldn't you?

---

Why would she add you if she doesn't know you live in her town? Would she ever even meet you? Why should she add you then?

This is why putting your location is critical.

#3. WHAT YOU DO VS. WANT YOU DO

---

Let me explain what this means. You can say the exact same things two different ways and it means different things. If you're a student; "Nobel prize winning scientist in the making" sounds better than "Science Major"

Here's the thing... You NEED to put it in a way that sounds exciting. Words are how you describe things.

Another Example. If your job is a computer programmer, what sounds better?

"Computer programmer"

Or

"Job - Making kick ass computer programs career - Seeking thrilling adventures"

---

Now, this is where you can really shine. After you give the standard information about yourself, you can insert a "spark" that makes you shine. This can be;

- A passionate quote,
- More great qualities you have,
- Awards won,
- Things you've accomplished or are striving to accomplish,
- Places you've been "12 countries down, 178 to go"
- etc...

In this area you can say anything about yourself that gives her a glimpse into who you are as a person.

---

Here is where you can direct her to go learn more about you. If you have a blog, website, or any stories about you online, put the link here. They can learn even MORE about you here. Otherwise put an exciting website or article that women will admire you for. Something you value.

Do you workout?

Do you travel?

Do you read?
21EssentialBooks.com

Do you like computers?

Make your hobby a passion and make her be passionate for your passion.

Got it?

Now that you know the 5 things you MUST have in your profile let's see how they look in an actual profile.

Here are 15 templates for all different types of personalities, jobs, hobbies, etc. No two people are alike so pick and choose what you like from each of these to construct your own bio. Important* I emphasize "Adventure Seeker" a lot. Adventure can be anything and everything. It doesn't mean you have to go climb mountains or bungee jump every weekend.

But the word DOES invoke a dangerous, unpredictable (bad boy) side to you that women will like.
